International Conference on Citizenship Education and Teacher Education – Toronto 2005

Fifty leading academics in citizenship education and teacher education from around the world (e.g. Japan, USA, Australia, Hong Kong, Europe) came together for a very successful major international conference at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, 19-21 July 2005.

Sponsored and organized jointly by UK-based citizED and OISE/UT (CTL, CID, TLC), the conference keynotes, paper presentations, and panels, and discussed current, key developments in research, policy, practice and research in citizenship and teacher education across the world at national, regional and international levels and explored significant possible future initiatives in citizenship education and teacher education. Keynote addresses were provided by Professor Alan Sears (University of New Brunswick, CA), Professor Judith Torney-Purta (University of Maryland USA) and Professor Lynn Davies (University of Birmingham, UK). In addition, Issue 1 of the International Journal of Citizenship and Teacher Education was launched.
